"Despondent" writes: "I am 42 years old and until two years ago I was very strong and vigorous. Gradually I began to fall, and now I am trembling, nervous, weak, timid, despondent, and life has lost its brightness and pleusures for me. I think I need medicine for my nerves."

Answer: At your age many are af-flicted as you are, and the very best treatment for such conditions is a-grain cadomene tablets, packed in seased tubes, with full directions. It is a tonid restorative treatment of very great ef-fectiveness in overcoming the depleted, worn-out nervous system. worn-out nervous system.

The questions answered below are general in character; the symptoms or diseases are given and the answers should apply to any case of similar nature.

Those wishing further advice, free, may address Dr. Lewis Baker, Callege building, College-Eiwood streets, Dayton, O. enclosing self-addressed, stamped envelope for reply. Full name and address must be given, but only initials or fictitious name win be used in my answers. The prescriptions can be filled at any well-stocked drug stere. Any druggist can order of whole-saler.

I can do nothing to keep the oil out of it."

Answer: To take the surplus oil out of the hair and to keep it soft and fluffy, get a 4-oz, jar of plain yellow minyol and use it regularly. This will stop itching scalp and dandruff and make the hair grow, and you will not be bothered with stringy, straggling looks.

"Locise" writes: "I do not weigh enough for my height. I am dull and lifeless and have frequent headsches. Please advise what will help me."

Answer: Your condition is due to the lack of red blood corpuscles. I can prescribe nothing better than 3-gram hyponucians tablets, which can be purchased at any up-to-date drug store in genled cartons with full directions. These tablets will cause the body to assimilate the fatty elements of food and thus give you strength and added color to the skin. Your weight will increase and you will not be troubled with headache. These are recommended by physicians and if taken according to directions you will surely gain fiesh.

"Mrs. L. C." writes: "Our family of five all are afflicted with catarrh. A friend told me that your prescription cured her and her child. Please tell me what to use."

Answer: You can be very easily relieved of his bronchial trouble by using essence mentho-faxene. This relieves quickly and certainly brings about a cure by its tonic and laxative action and therefore is superior to ordinary preparations, which only relieve. You can feel the medicine working on the throat, lunks and bronchial tubes given a feeling of freshness and strength to the entire system. Purchase a 2 1-2 or package of essence mentho-faxene and make according to the directions on bottle and take eight to ten doses daily and you will soon be tured of your trouble.

DANDRUFF AND FALLING HAIR CAN BE STOPPED WITH HERPICIDE

Every woman who is obliged to wear false hair, or man a toupee, feels that it is a misfortune. What makes the burden so doubly hard to bear is the knowledge that the loss of natural hair could, is most instances, have been easily avoided.

The arch enemy of good hair is the dandruif germ. This is now a well established scientific fact. There is one remedy on the market which, used regularly, will clean the scalp and keep out every trace of dandruff. This remedy is Newbro's Herpicide, long known as "the Original Dandruif Germ Destroyer." By keeping the scalp clean, Herpicide not only prevents the hair from falling out but allows it to grow as nature intended. Begun in time and its use
